

SEVEN MEN RESCUED

The Crew of the British Brig
Bertha Gray.

LEWIS SENT TO PRISON

Mrs. Stuart Will Present Crosses of Honor to Confederate Veterans on June 30—President Jefferson Davis' Birthday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., May 14.—Seven shipwrecked men were rescued from the very jaws of death by the British steamship St. Oswald, which arrived here this morning. The men were Captain John Richards and six of the crew of the British brig Bertha Gray, which foundered in a storm near the Gulf Stream.

The brig is bound from Jacksonville to St. Kitt's, Martinique, and was loaded with lumber. At last accounts she was a derelict. The St. Oswald was bound from Mobile to Baltimore with general cargo, and on her way to Lambert's Point for coal. The rescue, which was a particularly thrilling one, reads like a page of fiction. The scene took place in mid-ocean, and the wrecked men were huddled on a little house in the after part of the vessel, whose decks were awash.

C. P. Lewis, who was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for the murder of Myrtle Joyner, of this city, has been taken to the penitentiary by a guard, who was sent from Richmond.
Lewis has made a hard struggle to keep from going to the penitentiary, but the decision of the jury of the Corporation Court was never reversed and the sentence of Judge A. R.
Hancock has been executed. Lewis or Nelson attracted a great deal of attention here and in Richmond by his youthful appearance, his glib tongue and the sensations he created in the churches.
He deserted a wife and child in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Stuart, widow of General J. E.
B. Stuart, of Confederate fame, will present the crosses of honor to all Confederate veterans applying on June 30, President Jefferson Davis' birthday. The crosses are given by Pickett-Buchanan Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy.
The Spotswood Hotel, at Granby and Tazewell Streets, is still talked of, but the work on the building has not begun.
The cost of the building is estimated at $250,000, of which $50,000 or $75,000 will be put up by Norfolk capitalists and the balance by moneyed men of New York and Baltimore. It is to be a large as the Monticello. The latter cost about $400,000, but could not be duplicated now for that amount.

Miss Anne Henry, daughter of General B. Henry, has been chosen as maid of honor to Miss Tucker, of this city, who is to be sponsor for Virginia at the coming Confederate reunion in New Orleans, La. Mrs. Henry will be accompanied by Judge T. S. Garnett, Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Walker, Mr. Baker and Colonel James Mann. The latter, who has now a residence in this city, is a relative of the late General Henry.

Water Freeman was tried in the Corporation Court for the murder of Anne Henry. They are brothers and they were engaged in a typical negro quarrel on February 13th, during which the man hit the woman. She died on the 20th of the same month. The jury, which was composed of the court appointed one of the young lawyers to defend the case. The jury considered the case and sent the defendant to the penitentiary.

Several preachers of South Norfolk have charged that the paper published in the interest of the liquor crusade was not distributed from the postoffice there.
The postmaster and his assistant deny the charges.

TRIAL OF SLAUGHTER

Charged With Murder of James Bowen in Lunenburg County.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LUNENBURG COURTHOUSE, VA., May 14.—The County Court has been in session since Monday. Judge George C.
Organs presiding trying the case of Tarlton Slaughter for shooting and killing James Bowen on March 25th. The Commonwealth is represented by the Commonwealth Attorney, ex-Judge W.
H. Perry, assisted by Mr. G. S. Wingo, of Prince Edward; while the defense is led after by W. E. Nebbett and Colonel Meade Haskins, of Blackstone. The evidence in the case is very contradictory.
It is impossible to forecast the verdict of the jury. Both parties made threats, and on the night of the 25th of March, Slaughter went to the house of Bowen, where a quarrel and fight ensued, during which blows with the fist were exchanged. Slaughter then drew a revolver and shot Bowen in the chest, which he struck Slaughter. Slaughter shot Bowen twice, the second shot striking Bowen in the head, killing him.

The weather is very dry the farmers are much helped in plowing the corn crop, but tobacco plants are said to be abundant, and with seasonable weather soon, an average crop will likely be planted.

ASLEEP ON THE TRACK

Grazing a Cow Near the Railroad.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESAPEAKE, VA., May 14.—Tommy James, aged 14 years, son of R. Jacobs, section foreman of the Southern Railroad at Mitchell's Station, was instantly killed near that point this evening by a north-bound local freight. The boy was grazing a cow near the railroad and laid down upon the track. A full section engineer Jennings saw an object upon the track, but at first took it to be a piece of paper. As soon as he saw it was a boy he ran to the engine, but it was too late. The boy was run over and the body badly mutilated.

pletes Twenty Years of Service.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., May 14.—Rev. Robert J. McBryde, D. D., rector of Grace R. E. Lee Memorial Episcopal Church, Lexington, who has completed twenty years of service to that congregation, celebrated his anniversary by a social dinner at the rectory. $7,000 has been raised and spent by this church within and without the parish, which is an average annual contribution of $364.5 for each communicant.

The hundred and twenty-eight persons have been confirmed, including one hundred and forty-five in what is known as the Natural Bridge parish. Church property worth $7,000 in Rockbridge county, outside of the parish, has been acquired.

paid and an additional amount of $230 spent in improvements on the church and rectory.

dents of Washington and Lee University and seven cadets of the Virginia Military Institute have entered the ministry, and at present two students, two cadets and two members of the congregation are disciples for orders. This makes more than an average of one for each year of his ministry in this place. The vestry adopted suitable resolutions and presented them to Dr. McBryde.

VIOLATED JIM-CROW LAW

Rev. J. Strange and His Son Don't Want to Sit With Negroes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LEXINGTON, VA., May 14.—The Rev.
J. Strange and his son John, according to the names given, were conducted to the station house this morning to deposit collateral for their appearance in court for charges of violating the "Jim Crow" law in operation on the electric line between here and Washington. The men, who are colored, objected, it is alleged, to a room designated by the conductor for negroes.

The merchants of the city are making arrangements to remedy the crippled condition of the transportation facilities between here and Washington, consequent upon the destruction by fire of the ferryboat Columbia at her pier in Washington Wednesday evening. Goods have been sent by rail, or by a land route, a solution may be put into commission to maintain the traffic. Efforts will be redoubled to get boats for the new ferry line, for the charter of which an application has been made to the Corporation Commission in Richmond.

Granolithic Walks.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., May 14.—Old Bruton Church yard is to be beautified and improved by the laying of granolithic walks. The Norfolk-Southern, of New Orleans, committee of Miss Marie Marshall, has generously offered to bear the expense of these improvements. It is probable the church will be restored in its former glory in the next few years.
This will mean the entire remodeling of the interior. The parish is now in a very flourishing condition.

A northern party is trying to secure an option on the Virginia Gazette, a newspaper established in 1736. It is thought they want it for its historical features and to run in connection with the Jamestown Tercentennial.
